This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

ELIJAH'S

MANTLE.

1

WHEN by th' Almighty's dread command,
ELIJAH, call'd from Israel's land,
Rose in the sacred flame,
His Mantle, good ELISHA caught,
And, with the Prophet's spirit fraught,
Her second hope became.

2

In PITT our Israel saw combin'd
The Patriot's heart—the Prophet's mind,
ELIJAH'S spirit here;
Now, sad reverse!—that spirit reft,
No confidence, no hope is left;
For no ELISHA'S near.

3

Is there, among the greedy band
Who've seiz'd, on Power, with harpy hand,
And Patriot worth assume,
One on whom public faith can rest—
One fit to wear ELIJAH'S vest,
And cheer a Nation's gloom?

4

GRENVILLE !—to aid thy Treasury fame,
A portion of PITT's Mantle claim,
His generous ardour feel;
Resolve, 'bove sordid self, to soar,
Amidst Exchequer gold be poor!
Thy wealth—the public weal.

5

Fox !—if on thee some remnant fall,
The shred may, to thy mind, recall
Those hours of loud debate,
When thy unhallowed lips be-prais'd
" The glorious fabric" traitors rais'd
On Bourbon's fallen state—

6

Thy soul let PITT's example fire,
With patriot zeal thy tongue inspire,
Spite of thy Gallic leaven;
And teach thee, in thy latest day,
His form of prayer, (if thou canst pray)
"O save my Country, Heaven!"

7

WINDHAM,—if e'er thy sorrows flow
For private loss or public woe,
Thy rigid brow unbend:
Tears, over CÆSAR, BRUTUS shed,
His hatred warr'd not with the dead—
And PITT was once thy friend.

8

Does Envy bid thee not to mourn?
Hold then his Mantle up to scorn,
His well-earn'd Fame assail;
Of funeral honours strip his corse,
And at his virtues till thou'rt hoarse,
Like curst THERSITES rail!

9

Illustrious Roscius of the State!
New breech'd and harness'd for debate,
Thou wonder of thy age!
PETTY or BETTY art thou hight,
By Granta sent to strut thy night
On Stephen's bustling stage?

10

PITT's 'Chequer robe 'tis thine to wear:
Take of his Mantle too a share,
'Twill aid thy Ways and Means;
And should Fat Jack, and his Cabal,
Cry "rob us the Exchequer, Hal!"
'Twill charm away the fiends.

11

Sage PALINURUS of the realm!
By VINCENT call'd to take the helm,
And play his proxy's part;
Dost thou or star, or compass know?
Canst reef aloft—or hand below?
Hast conn'd the shipman's chart?

12

No! from PITT's Mantle tear a rag,
Enough to serve thee for a flag,
And hoist it on thy mast:
Beneath that sign (our prosperous star)
Shall future NELSONS rush to war,
And rival victories past.

13

SIDMOUTH—though low his head is laid
Who call'd thee from thy native shade,
And gave thee second birth;—
Gave thee the sweets of Power and Place,
The tufted gown—the gilded mace,
And rear'd thy puny worth:

14

Think how his Mantle wrapp'd thee round:
Is one of equal virtue found
  Among thy new Compeers?
Or can thy cloak of Amiens stuff,
Once laugh'd to scorn by Blue and Buff,
  Screen thee from WINDHAM's jeers?

15

When Faction threaten'd Britain's land,
Thy new-made friends—a desperate band,
  Like AHAB—stood reprov'd:
PITT's powerful tongue their rage could check;
His counsel sav'd, midst general wreck,
  The Israel that he lov'd.

16

Yes, honour'd shade; whilst near thy grave
The letter'd sage, and chieftain brave,
The votive marble claim;
O'er thy cold corse—the public tear,
Congeal'd, a chrystal shrine shall rear,
Unsullied as thy Fame.

THE END.
